SELECTMEN'S APPOINTMENTS.
Thomas J. Kelley, Town Counsel—Supt. Chamberlain Reappointed at Town Farm—Minor Offices Filled.

The new board of selectmen held its regular meeting Monday and besides the transaction of the routine business made a number of appointments, chief among which was the unanimous reappointment of Henry W. Chamberlain as superintendent of the town farm and the appointment of James P. Twomey, transient officer.

The matter of the appointment of a clerk was disposed of at the first meeting of the board when Attorney Thomas J. Kelley was appointed from counsel to succeed Judge A. J. Bowen.
The announcement of Miss Hepsy Roden's reappointment as clerk of the board meets with approval as she has proven a most competent assistant to the board.

The other minor appointments—which were principally reappointments—made Monday follow:

North Windham cemetery committee, Edwin H. Hall, Leslie H. Hartson and Dwight E. Lyon; Willimantic cemetery, D. Clifford Barrows, Carl R. Alford and Jay M. Snodgrass; Windham cemetery, George E. Chalenger,

No One Anxious for Nomination.
The democratic probate convention for the nomination of a judge of probate for this district has been called for Saturday. There is no one out after the berth who has done any amount of canvassing for the nomination.

Not Seeking Other Office.

There is a great deal of talk to the effect that Town Clerk and Treasurer Frank P. Fenton is to be one of the democratic nominees for representative from Windham at the caucus next Monday evening. Mr. Fenton Monday afternoon flatly denied his rumored candidate and emphatically stated that he has not been, is not and does not propose to be a candidate for the honors this year. He already has sufficient work to require all his attention and accepted the nomination and election as department commander of the U. S. W. V., with the avowed purpose of giving the organization as good an administrative as possible, to do which will require considerably upon his scant leisure time.

CAR REPAIRER DEAD.

John Flannagan, injured in Bolton Wreck, Fourth Man to Die.

John Flannagan, of Newington, the car repairer, who was seriously injured in last Thursday's wreck at Bolton, died at St. Joseph's hospital Monday morning as the result of the injuries sustained. The leg was so badly mangled that amputation was necessary just below the hip. Deceased was also internally injured. Word was sent his wife of his failing condition, but she did not arrive until shortly after he died, at 11:15 o'clock.
Coroner R. H. Fisk of Stafford was notified and arrived here shortly after dinner and gave permission to Burial Director E. E. Hicks to prepare the body for burial. Registrar of Vital Statistics Frank P. Fenton issued a removal permit and the body was sent to Hartford on the 4:07 express.

This makes the fourth man to die as a result of the accident. Mr. Flannagan was 47 years old. There survive a widow and four children, the oldest of whom is 11 years. He had but recently moved from East Hartford to Newington. He was well known among local railroad men, having at various times done work in the local yard.

Constables Qualify.

The following five out of the seven constables elected at the annual town election have qualified, and Monday they took their oaths with the board of selectmen: Irving M. Ford, Lyman Maine, Jr., Wilbur G. Stevens, Harry W. Avery and William J. Hastings.

H. C. MURRAY

Elected Director of Windham National Bank to Succeed the Late Henry Larabee.

The board of directors of the Windham National bank held a meeting Monday and elected H. C. Murray a director to fill the vacancy on the board caused by the death of Henry Larabee, late of Windham. There was no other business of importance transacted, as the meeting was held simply for the purpose of electing a director. Mr. Murray was the unanimous choice of the directors.

The White Squaw Pleases Audience.

Monday evening at Loomer Opera house a large audience was well satisfied with the representation of "The White Squaw," which was effectively staged and well played by an able cast of characters, evenly balanced. A number of Norwich people witnessed the performance.

LADIES' AUXILIARY, A. O. H.

Holds Sixth Biennial County Convention on Monday.

The ladies' auxiliary to the A. O. H. held its sixth biennial county convention in this city Sunday in A. B. S. hall. About a score of delegates were in attendance. Following dinner at the Hotel Hooker the convention was called to order at 2:30 o'clock by Miss Elizabeth M. Shea, county president.
A number of matters of interest were discussed and routine business transacted. One of the principal items was the adoption of a resolution condemning the postcard caricaturing the Irish race. Support was pledged to Miss Sadie Grace in the contest to decide the most popular Catholic lady in America. These officers were then elected:

President, Elizabeth M. Shea, Willimantic; vice president, Miss M. J. Reid, Putnam; secretary, Marietta Gordon, Putnam; treasurer, E. Grace Otten-berger, Willimantic.

The above officers have served the county during the past two years, and their re-election was in appreciation of the good work done in the interest of the order.

Following the convention lunch was served and entertainment furnished by the members of the local division.
The following delegates were in attendance:

Putnam—Mrs. Annie Ryan, Miss Martha Ryan, Miss Mary McGarry, Miss Elizabeth Reid, Mrs. Kate Mc-Geary, Miss Margaret O'Brien, Miss

Bigelow Family to Move to Buffalo.

Lucius S. Bigelow and family, who have made their residence in this city and have been jointly for the past three years or more will move to Buffalo, N. Y., about the 20th inst. Mr.
Bigelow says that this change is necessary because of business interests.
He is unable to get magazines that he publishes published in this city, and has made arrangements to have them turned out in Buffalo. The family will, however, continue to occupy their summer home on Pine Island, Mansfield, each year.

Miss Pendleton Thrown from Carriage.

Monday afternoon just before five o'clock Mrs. William P. Allen, who lives above the town farm, and Miss Grace Pendleton, who boards with her, had just driven into Church street from Main and stopped at the curb. Mrs. Allen got out of the carriage leaving Miss Pendleton seated therein.

A minute or two after a heavy pair of horses hitched to a large farm wagon rounded the corner from Main street into Church street, and as there was insufficient room for the heavy wagon to pass the light top carriage, the forward wheels of the heavier wagon became locked in the outside rear wheel of the carriage and turned the carriage over upon its side, throwing out Miss Pendleton. She had the presence of mind to run to the horse's head and prevent him from starting to run. The heavy pair of horses continued on up Church street and were stopped by Tax Collector J. B. Bal-win opposite J. M. Young & Son's store. There were no injuries except that Miss Pendleton sustained quite a severe shaking up and was slightly bruised about the right hand.
The wheel of the light carriage was broken and the top scratched.

The pair of horses and lumber wagon were owned by Jesse Eno of Mansfield Center.

J. A. Lyman Awarded Contract.

The street committee of the common council opened this Monday morning in the office of Corporation Counsel G. W. Melony for the construction of the improvements on West Main street, adjacent to the property of Arnold Potter, Charles M. Holbrook and others. This involves the excavation and removal of 950 cubic yards of earth, together with the building of a retaining wall, five feet above the surface of the sidewalk, three feet wide at the base and one foot six inches wide at the top and set on foundation of same material extending one foot and six inches

The contract was awarded to J. A.
Lyons for $555. The other bidders were: Charles Lyman, Jr., $1,056.20,

TOUCHED WRONG BELL.

Visitor to Ansonia High School Gave Signal for Fire Drill.

An interesting fire drill was held at the Hill school, Friday morning, says the Ansonia Sentinel. A teacher from Seymour is said to have pressed the button and the children did the rest.
The way they did it is said to have surprised the visitor, who thought for a moment that the entire school had turned out to greet her. As soon as she pressed the button doors flew open in all directions and the tramp, tramp, tramp of the pupils could be heard on every floor. It was raining outside, but the children did not seem to mind and in a moment after the bell sounded the hallways were fairly alive with students heading for the doors.

It is unusual to have a fire drill on a rainy day and not a few of the teachers, as well as the scholars, thought there was really a fire. Even Superintendent Buckley was kept guessing for a moment. The children were finally turned back, the high school students on the third floor being halted on their way to the lower hall.

While one of the Seymour teachers was credited with getting the children out, Superintendent Buckley was two chivalrous to admit it. When asked about the matter, the superintendent admitted there had been a fire drill, but he understood that some visitor had taken the fire alarm station for the porter's bell. Mr. Buckley said some parent who was visiting the school was supposed to have pressed the button.

The Time Will Come.
President Faunce of Brown puts part of the responsibility for college evils upon the fond and foolish fathers. "Fathers are paying $2,000 for an automobile for the boy who does not need it," he said, "and putting him under a $700 teacher. The time will come when the father will pay the $2,000 for the teacher and the $700 for the automobile."

In Persia there are no distilleries nor breweries, and native wine is the only intoxicating beverage used.
